ALEX FLATNER

Circle Music | Poker Flat | DE – Mannheim

2011

The personal data sheet of Alex Flatner is a buzz of famous projects, collaborations, labels and worldwide venues, while he mostly remains the silent gentleman behind the scenes. Meeting him without knowing his remarkable stages of success would rather draw a picture of a congenial guy who has seen quite a lot of places worldwide and is convinced about himself, but he rarely points out what he reached so far. To meet Alex is like seeing a long time friend, and one would be quite surprised that he runs several prosperous labels and works as A&R manager, producer and DJ all over the globe.

Flatner's mode of pure understatement factors out several facts which have to be mentioned when talking about a matchless track record in music business: Besides being A&R manager for labels like Harthouse, Plastic City and some more quality essentials, and running his own imprints Gedankensport and Circle Music, he has a broad ranged output taking course parallel to his full time multitasking business and his travels throughout the countries every weekend. He released a fabulous mix CD ("World Of Circle"), linked with touring through France, India, Spain, Croatia, Germany, Poland and Russia.

Alex made a great effort signing artists such as Sebastien Leger, Robert Babicz Valentino Kanzyani, Joey Beltram, Umek, Leandro Gamez, Bryan Zentz and Gui Boratto for his Circle Music imprint.

Being "stage director" and producer, he has recently remixed Gui Boratto's "Atol", Terry Lee Brown Junior's "Pulsar" or Steve Lawler's "Almerina", Märtini Brös' "High On Heels", Alejandro Vivanco's "Vita Jo", and cooperates with people from the likes of Lopazz, Anderson Noise, Joey Beltram, Ken Ishii, Santos, Einzelkind, Simon Baker and Reboot. His tracks appeared on Sven Väth's "The Sound of the Ninth Season" (Cocoon) or Loco Dice's compilation "In The Lab" and reached the Beatport Top 20.

His current projects are the next release with Lopazz on Cocoon Recordings ("MakeUpYourMind" Remixes) with Jesper Dahlbäck, Steve Lawler, Dave Ellesmere, Sebbo and his next Solo Release on Circle Music including Remixes by Deepgroove and Warren Fellow, his next release on Pokerflat Recordings, his 2nd one, (Steve Bug's label) with Lopazz "This", an Upcoming E.P. with Martin Eyerer and a E.P. with Hermanez on Result Recordings called "Blossom"!
